

(Continued from Page 5)
Smith in hopes that she teaches Algebra next year.

I, Carolyn Wukman, will to Julia all the fun in Cooking Class.
I, Marilyn Wukman, will my good times at Pershing to everybody.

I, Doreen Sweigart, being of inkstained hands and rattled brains, do hereby will my ability (?) to make maps to Mrs. Leggett.

I, Johnny St. Germain, leave all my teachers to my classmates to tear up.

I, Mary Throgmorton, leave to Jody Toddy my pony-tail.

I, Judy Stradinger, will my ability (?) to get along with my teachers to my sister, Jan.

I, Lee Trail, will Sheryl Schoenfeld my ability to get along with John Trail.

I, Ann Taylor, will my dirty gym suit to my sister.

I, Kay Sublett, will my great English grades (?) to Jim Stevens.

I, Neva Terry, will to Judy McFarland all my ABC gum.

I, Barbara McClean, leave my ability to get along with Miss Grossman to Jan Stevens.

I, Wayne Frank Castleberry, will to my little sister, a match and a can of gasoline to burn down a certain shack.

I, Merry Swanson, will to Mary Nell Nolan all my laughs with Mr. Moss.

I, Suzanne Robinshow, will all my good conduct grades to Mrs. High.

I, Don DeLand, will my ability to know algebra to a young and up coming 8th grader named Ferguson.

I, David Brockwell, will to Miss Parks my good humor and brains and conduct grades. On second thought I'll keep the humor and brains and just will the conduct grades.

I, Jimmy Borland, will all of my "pops", 49 of them, to Larry Brasewell.

I, Dale Brown, will to Sydney Smith my ability to do push-ups on Bellaire Blvd.

I, Sheila Branscum, leave "Bwo" and Haryet Simon my good times at the Village.

I, Jerry Braswell, will my ability not to get pops to Wayne Gripp.

I, Beverly Martin, bequeath all my $15.00 worth of James Dean movie magazines to Mrs. Berry, the nurse.

I, Arthur de la Houssaye, will all my pops to Jack Anderson and the school back to the school board.

I, Carole Briggs, leave my good conduct grades to Helen Bartlett and Martha Lanier.

I, Phyllis Bumar, leave Nancy Norris and Nancy Flake my wave and red rinse. I hope they have better luck with them than I did.

I, Patsy Bonner, leave my mirror to Susan Snead.

I, Benton Brown, will all my pops and lectures to Jerry Taylor.

I, Roy Bobo, will all my good

(?) English grades to Justin Elliott who can probably use them.

I, Mike Blackledge, leave my deteriorated A-V badge to Frankie Burdett and Howard Chalmers.

To Carolyn Bridges I leave sole pair of gym shorts and trusty tattered T-shirt. Signed Bill Bush.

I, Pudgie Cornwell, will all my nicknames (Agnes, Pudgy, and Patoogie) and my fumbles in football to Julia, Mary Jane and Gail.

I, Kathie Martin, will my beautiful saxophone playing to Tom Mullen.

I, Lee Chatham, leave to my brother, Clifford, my ability to make excellent grades in algebra.

I, Bain Williams, will my ability to get out of predicaments fast to Dave McInee and Don Cantrell.

I, Kay Clanton, will to Karen Terry and Arlene Cohen my ability to skip school (dancing on shows) and still somehow manage to pass.

I, Barbara Segers, will my glorious days and grades to Eddie Browning.

I, Linda Griswold, will my ability to make low grades in algebra to Vance Griswold and Robert Simmon.

I, Jerry Weloton, leave my machine gun to Carol Lillibridge and Bobby Wynne so that they will be the life of the party.

I, Richard Cunningham, will Mr. Gimble's good humor, patience and understanding to Spookie, Sparky, Smokey, and Scroge, the smart alec yankee drummers of Pershing's Senior Band.

I, Linda Carrier, leave to Barbara Holman my ability, along with Margo's, to keep up our wonderful Friendship Club!

I, Judy Bond, will my braces to all the lucky ones (?) who have to wear them.

I, Kenneth Carr, will my ability to fyp and her tpe-qrivets back to Mrs. Rollins.

I, Joy Simmons, leave all my books to Robert Simmons and Vance Griswold.

I, Carolyn Carothers, give everybody everything but I won't. I will only give 99 44/100% of the people something.

I, Carol Smith, will to my beloved next door neighbor, Georgia Reynolds, my old bottle of peroxide and Preston Webb if you want them.

I, James Cheek, will my T-Co to Denton Allen in hopes he will try to get it from me.

I, Miki Carlisle, leave Kaye Thompson all of my long black hair.

I, Jeannine Pingenot, will my brain to be put up for a science exhibit.

I, Bari Bodden, will my gym shoes and sox to Frankie Carl Burdett.

I, Bill Chenouff, will my Latin grades to any one who is unlucky enough to get them.

I, Gayle Chernosky, leave my monogrammed lunch bags to anyone constantly loosing his lunch.

I, Garry Gunter, will my 22 pops back to Mr. Landers.

I, Marsha Day, will to Katherine Day my ability to make bad grades in algebra.

I, Susan Campbell, will to Patty Sims my great beauty and wisdom in hopes it will make her as unpopular as I.

I, Mary Robbins, will my ability to fail Latin (even after studying for 10 minutes, to Sandy Dominiquez.

I, Richard Bannerot, leave my beat up chair in the band room to Bobby Parkinson.

I, Carol Pitcher, will to Ramona Bowen my freckle remover.

I, Gail Reuben, leave most of my many pictures of John Begley to Susie Dreschel whenever I stop liking him.

I, Barbara Plummer, leave all my good luck to my sister and Adelaide Pierce.

I, Linda Quillin, will to Paul-ette Setzer, my gym shoes and the hot times I had wearing them.

I, Chucker Redman, will my old stinky gym clothes that some one stole last year to Douglas Griffin.

I, Lana Feagin, will my ragged gym suits to Barbara Freeman.

I, Henry Milam, will my ability to run a projector and ruin film to Bill Simonson and David Campbell.

I, Carol Coulter will my locker number 176 with the personal-ly autographed picture of Mickey Mouse on the door, back to the walls of Pershing.

I, Louis Collins, will Mr. Moore my counterfeiting machine to make 1894 dimes and 1913 nickles.

I, Bill Trish, will my gym shorts to Robert Lacy.

I, Sandy Cole, will to Alton Earl (Speedo) a new transmission for the "Green Monster."

I, Elsie Bowman, will my grades to anyone who wants them including my gym shoes.

I, Jack Coleman, do hereby will all my Latin grades, crim studio it magna celeritate, to any poor, misguided soul who wants them.

I, Judy Lucas hope that Judy Bob White never runs out of jokes and money.

I, Richard Duke, will one bottle of Ucer Pills to my history teacher.

I, Barbara Sipe, will my ability to get along with boys to my sister, Annette.

I, Janis Glanzner, will to my brother, David, Aunt Maxey.

I, Richard Bruns, will to any H-8 my good (?) World History tests from Mr. Thomasson's room.

I, Joyce Lee, leave to Patricia Robinson the very nice ability to wash and iron my gym suit and then forget it on Monday morning.

I, Carole Cloninger, alias C. C., will all that I am able to will to anyone who is willing to receive all that I am very unwillingly about to will in my last wills and Testament at PERSHING.

I, Dessa Crawford, bequeath my often-used Chorus conducting pencil to Perky or to her circular file.

I, John E. Parkerson, leave all my happy times in Mr. Hansen's World History class to Murray Jones.

I, W. L. (Buzzy) Creekmore, leave to all future presidents of the H-9 the invisible responsibilities of said office.

I, Charlotte Peters, will my two ragged gym suits and my size ten gym shoes to Nan Peabody.

I, Gwen Collier, will my ability to chew gum in Spanish to my brother, Robert.

I, Bob Oakes, leave Jimmy Hammond all of my marvelous grades in Latin.

I, Claire Chavanne, will my ability to make a "H" in conduct in Mrs. Worley's room to Gordon Graham.

I, Nelson Wolff, leave nothing because I can't think of any thing worthwhile to leave except my 7 months I've gone with Sonja to some 7th grader.

I, June Mitchell, will to Barbara Heath my roving eye.

I, Nancy Culbertson, will to William Francis Hamlett all the crushed feet he has given me with his blue suedes.

I, Margaret Claghorn, will to my sister, Louise, all my eraser-less pencils that I used up in Miss Moreland's room.

I, Adele Lewis, do hereby will my ability to do my Latin assignments before class, to Marilyn Ferguson.

I, Don Gartner, will back to the 29 different teachers which I have had in my three-year stay at Pershing, the knowledge they tried to impound into my hard head, in hopes that they might put it to a more successful use.

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

FULL SPORTS—

(Continued from Page 1)

Barricklo, Malcolm Bell, and Bobby Oakes.

The outstanding rowers will be Judy Garmon, Tim O'Donnell, Carol Compton, Carolin Autrey, Lee Chatham and Mike Burgess.

Skillful canoeers will be Jerry Frank, Robert Gairing, Susan Daily, Richard Cunningham, Howard Bingham, and Michael Cassidy.

The well known yatchsmen will be Tom Romberg, John Greenwood, and Mary Robbins.

Gymnastics experts will be Jimmy Hall, Deanne Carter, Mary Daniel, Harry Dillshaw and Douglas Bratton.

Weight lifters will be Doris Hendon, Gary Costilow, Mary Ann Davidson, Thomas Granes and Miki Carlisle.

Cyclists will be Suanna Hinrichs, Jack Drummond, Jeanie Davis, Rise Finch, James Cheek and James Broussard.

The Olympic Games will be dominated by the United States.

Winning the javelin throw for men will be Rayford High, Billy Kelly, Gorgon Scarborough and Mark Bowden; for women will be Ann Nichols.

Discus throw winners for men will be Tony Ulrich, B. Creekmore, Walter Bradl, Tarry Milles, Bob Gravel, Emmert; for women will be McLaughlin and Eliza Towles.

The high jump winner men will be Steve Barber, Minchen, Travis Broesche Bill Monroe; for women will be Kay Millet and Carole Hardy.

The winners of the pole vault for men will be Andy Seidel, Nelson Wolff, George Morgan, David Harris, Stephen Engberg, Freddie Lipscomb and Larry Hy.

The broad jump winners for men will be Jimmy Tabb, David McLaughlin, John O'Heer, Tom Gillean and Jim Triou; women Nan Peabody.

The shot put winners for men will be Donnie Meredith, Jim McDugald, William Hamlett and Tom Francis; for women will be Janice Novak.

The hop, step and jump runners will be Dale McMillian, Vann Phillips and Bubba Putney.

The hammer throw winners will be Steve Zapp, Glynn Dyess, and Walter DeFoy.

The low hurdles winners will be Jere Wicker and Bobby Delany.

The decathlon winner will be Joe Lovelady.

Bill Pickles will run a mile in three minutes.

Start getting in shape so that these prophecies will come true.

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

0

PERSHING CHATTER

Published By The Chatter Club of John J. Pershing Junior High School

Volume 24

HOUSTON, TEXAS, MAY 21, 1956

Number 8

LINDLEY AND JACKSON WIN AWARDS

Full Sports Pages Are Prophesied For H-9s

Carolyn Traupe

The year, 1970, will find the names of Pershing students filling the sports pages of all the newspapers in the world.

The first major league baseball team to be composed of all girls will win the World Series in that year.

Pitching for that team will be Sharon Radke; Carolyn Traupe, the catcher; Sylvia Keller, first baseman; Jackie Watts, second base; Toby Trumps, third baseman; Carol Anne Voss, shortstop; Carolyn Guess, left field; Linda lor, centerfield; and Ann Tur-right field.

at boys will be Randolph Ab-Norman Boyker, Garry Fred-and Thomas Brown.

outstanding co-educational all team of that year will be Harriet Schaffer,

Crowe, Elsie Bowman, ara Sipe, Dotty Adams, iles Carter, Phillip Grimes, arry Ibson, Billy Burge, Mar-a Day and Kay Clanton.

Two basketball teams will tie for first place on the east coast.

In the play offs the all girl team Patricia Jones, Ann Fitch, Joyce Draper, Janya Houston, and ma Imbt) will defeat the all team (Ronald Poinaxter, Jer-walston, Charles Agnor, Rob-brownlee and Bobby Tant.

Swimming champs in 1970 will be Margaret Pyle (swimming the Atlantic Ocean), Rene Francis (the Pacific Ocean), Richard Bruno the Artic Ocean), Char-lotte Sparks (the Indian Ocean), Carol Akkerman (the length of the Mississippi River), Daveley

Dubrow (the Mediterranean), Quentin James (the Nile), Tom-mie Dorsett (the Gulf of Mex-ico), Barbara Jackson (she will be old fashioned and swim the English Channel), Richard No-land (the Amazon River), and Brent Carmichael (from Cali-fornia to Australia).

The club charter has been framed and hung in the club room. Some of the charter mem-bers of the Texas History Club had a doughnut sale recently to pay for the cost of the frame.

Projects of the club for the spring semester are: writing es-says on the history of our city, county, or state and submitting them to the Annual Writing Con-test in Austin; placing books in the Pershing library; giving a play on Sam Houston in the audi-torium; giving a play for the Daughters of the Republic of Texas; and interviewing differ-ent persons for interesting facts on Texas History.

Nine members attended the an-nual convention of the Texas Historical Association in April in Austin.

Mrs. Barnes has application blanks for students desiring to join the Texas History Club next year.

Good roller skaters will be Donna Sue Felton, Rebecca Lev-erton, Jennie Snyder, Jack Cole-man, Kathy Ballard, Betty Ell-ington, Mark Haxthaysen, Carol Newberry, Frank Jones and Va-nita Berson.

Susan Frank will be the first girl jockey to win the Kentucky Derby.

Volleyball players will be Sharon Ligon, Lloyd Lindinger, Louis Collins, Dianne Farrell, Molly El-lis, Stewart Newland, Robert La-juerta, Gerald Jordan and Kath-leen Martin.

Pool players will be Anthony Locascio, Gwen Collier, Janet Harbican, Marilu Ellis and Char-lie Newton.

Hot games of ping pong will be played by Miley Tucker, Sher-ry Strater, Gebby Long, Dickie Cottrell, Carole Palmer, Charles Leslie, Carole Sue Fenoglio, Bob-by Murray, Sandra McNulty, Jan-et Junker, John Smith and Mar-tha Bishop.

Polo champs will be Marilyn Martin, Carol Coulter, Barbara Pickard, Mary Francis Harris and Mildred Bishop.

Excellent water skiers will be Charles Madsen, Dessagene Crawford, Betty Van Hush, Rich-ard Hataway, Barbara Pearce, Diane Nichols, Jimmy Helliher, Judy Bond and Sonja Bocher.

Badminton players will be Alice Thurston, Jack McDaniel, Kenny Williams, Nancy Culbert-son, Cathy Williams, Gerry Hale, Alan Haufreet, Bill Oelfke, Frank Kelly, Kenneth Carr and Rebec-ca Borchert.

Sneet shooters will be Ann Hoover, Morris Malone, Richard Drake, Judy Young, Bob Hellums, John O'Quinn, Kay King, John Stuckley and Betty Bowman.

Trapshooters will be Janis La Grone, Mary Matthews, Don Gartner, John Farmer, Johnny Elliott, Tommy Henderson, James Pettitt, Elizabeth Lamkin, Don Brannan and Dorothy Brooks.

Archery champions will be Jan Tomlinson, Celia Middlebrook, Lana Feagin, Robert Farmer, Dennis Reed, Mike Hodges, Ar-nold Poth, Mary Long, Linda Carrier and Bette Bruton.

Auto racers will be Robert Wagner, Frank Meyer, Arlan Ferguson, Rufus Hooks, Bill Grote, Jeannie Pigenot and Si-mone Cameron.

Billiard players will be Terry Molik, Edward Wells, Janis Glan-zer, Pat Haragan, Bruce La Boon, Pam Popkin, Sandra Simmer, Al-vin Tumbert, Pogie Cornwell and Carolyn McCaber.

Speed boat racers will be Vic-tor Myers, Charles Davis, Joyce Lee, Tommy Long, Don Smith, and Jon Terrell.

Bowling champs will be Nancy Walton, Barbara Segers, Col-lette Montgomery, Clyde Ger-many, Joycelyn Reising, Jimmy Roberts, Jim Ridge, Steve Smith, Ella Lester and Sandra Pilit.

Famous boxers will be Wayne Shull, Adele Lewis, Judy Tindal, Dana Roe, David Roberts, Bill Bush, James Dawson, Wes-ley Sokolosky and Barry Mad-den.

Excellent croquet players will be Kay Anderson, Judy Lucas, Angel Hawkins, Lynn Walker, Jimmy Ross, Thomas Stults, Le-titia Kinzbach, Frances Martin, Bill Charlton and Anne Fisher.

Curling champs will be Foster McArthur, Sue Gerrard, David Warren, Trey Martin and Tim-my Smith.

Fencing experts will be Kay Ann Johnson, June Mitchell, Bar-bara Blum, Judy Bell, Carolyn Williams, Pat Norton and Bar-bara Axelrod.

The fishermen who catch the biggest fish will be Charlie Tira-do, Jimmy Lindley, Charlton Gouldson, Henry Milam, Audrey Riggs, Martha Summers, Samuel Shaw, Betty Day, Bill Puffer and Pat Harnes.

Ice boat racers will be John Parkerson, Cynthia Blanton, Ed-die Thurston, David Carter, Bain Williams and Bari Bodden.

Wrestlers in 1970 will be Lin-da Hudson, Margo Garrett, Har-old Taylor, Jean Childerhose and Frances Williams.

The first two people to walk all the way from Alaska to Chile will be David Broyles and Stuart Leaverton.

The yoyo champs will be Barry Weaver, Thomas Coff, Charlotte Peters, Sue Felder, John Weber, Richard Bannerot and Susie Heyne.

The winners of the continuous talking marathon will be Bobby Freedman and Ramona Hudgins. Champion Indian wrestlers will be Donald Murff, Martha Han-son, Linda Angle, David Ander-son, Susan Campbell, Kenneth

(Continued on Page 6)

Engberg, Houston Are Runners-up

Jimmy Lindley and Barbara Jackson received the American Legion Awards in the auditorium Monday.

Runnersup were Stephen Engberg and Janya Houston.

John O'Heeron acted as M.C.

Pam Pompkin, Character; and Marilu Ellis, Companionship.

Jimmy Lindley, a member of Mrs. Gregory's homeroom, was vice-president of the Student Council and president of the Hon-or Society in the ninth grade.

John O'Heeron acted as M.C.

John O'Heeron acted as M.C.

John O'Heeron acted as M.C.

John O'Heeron acted as M.C.

John O'Heeron acted as M.C.

John O'Heeron acted as M.C.

John O'Heeron acted as M.C.

John O